Career Summary

Mr. Mizo is a Senior Managing Director of HFF Securities L.P. ("HFFS"). His primary responsibilities include directing private equity fundraising activities by accessing real estate equity from institutional investors on behalf of clients of the firm. From 2001 - 2006, he served as a Commissioner of the Los Angeles City Employees' Retirement System, where he was elected President for his last two years and was also a member of the Private Investments Committee.

Prior to joining HFF, Mr. Mizo was one of the three founding partners of Chadwick Saylor, a real estate investment banking/investment management firm in Los Angeles. At Chadwick Saylor, he was involved in the successful completion of over $4 billion of real estate joint ventures and commingled funds. His prior professional career includes eight years in real estate investment advisory organizations and seven years of law practice in Boston and Los Angeles.

Mr. Mizo has represented numerous public and private real estate operating companies and has extensive experience in raising private equity for commingled funds and negotiating and structuring joint ventures with institutional investors. Mr. Mizo graduated from Boston College with a Bachelor's Degree and received a Juris Doctorate Degree from Boston College Law School where he was Editor of the Law Review.

Mr. Mizo serves on the Board of the Los Angeles Fire Department Scholarship Fund, which grants college scholarships to children of firefighters of the Los Angeles County Fire Department.
