

Larry A. Muller
Managing Director

Career Summary

Mr. Muller is a Managing Director for HFF Securities, the real estate investment banking affiliate of Holliday Fenoglio Fowler, L.P. Located in Los Angeles, his primary responsibility is to access private equity from public, corporate and tax-exempt institutional investors, on behalf of HFFS' clients. Mr. Muller has nearly 25 years experience in executive sales, business development, and management within the real estate and technology sectors.

Mr. Muller joined HFF Securities in January 2005. Previously, he served as Vice President, Sales & Marketing for RealEnergy, a developer and operator of energy systems for major commercial and hospitality properties. Previous real estate management positions were held with two leading telecommunications companies, following deregulation. Mr. Muller also served as an Executive Director for Jon Douglas Company and as a Vice President of Business Development for Kennedy Wilson.

Professional Designations

- Licensed Real Estate Salesperson - State of California (#00802216)
- General Securities Representative

10100 Santa Monica Blvd.
Suite 1400
Los Angeles, CA 90067

T: (310)407-2100
F: (310) 407-2104
lmuller@hfflp.com

Education

- MS, San Diego State University
- BA, University of California, Los Angeles